I. INTRODUCTION

The determination of the existence and the holder of “valid” title (i.e., enforceable between the parties), and “marketable” title (i.e., determinable “of record”, and relied upon by third party grantees and lenders) to a parcel of real property, requires the application of the current law of the State where the land is located. (60 O.S.§21)

The following materials reflect a listing of selected changes in the law of Oklahoma related to real property title issues, arising over the 12 months following June 30, 2012, including any (1) statutes enacted during the most recent State legislative session, (2) new regulations (if any), (3) cases from the Oklahoma Supreme Court and the Court of Civil Appeals, (4) opinions from the Oklahoma Attorney General (if any), and (5) Oklahoma Title Examination Standards adopted (or proposed) during that period.

2013-2014 LEGISLATIVE TERM

PENDING BILLS AND LAWS THAT MAY EFFECT

REAL PROPERTY & TITLE EXAMINATION STANDARDS

AMENDED & UPDATED FOR APRIL 19, 2014 MEETING

ACTIVE HOUSE BILLS INTRODUCED IN THE 2013-2014 SESSION

HB 2620 Cities and Towns - Creating the Protect Property Rights Act.
Sponsor: Representative Martin & Senators Treat & Newberry

Status: On March 4, 2014 the measure passed the House by a vote of 68-23 and has been sent to the Senate for consideration. On March 31, 2014 a substitute version of the measure passed the General Government Committee; and on April 14, 2014 Senator Newberry was added as a co-author.

The measure creates a new law that prohibits statewide registration of real property; prohibits a municipality from assessing or charging fees to own, register, lease, rent or transfer real property.

HB 2790 Probate: Amending Okl. Stat. tit. 58 §§ 245 & 246.
Sponsor: Representative McCullough

Status: On February 26, 2014 the measure passed the House by a vote of 83-0 and was sent to the Senate for consideration. An emergency clause was added by the Senate when it passed by a vote of 41 - 0. On April 17, 2014 the House signed off on the Senate's amendments and the measure appears to be making its way to the Governor for consideration.

The measure would amend existing law to set the hearing date for a final hearing for a period of time not less than 45 days, instead of the current statute requiring the hearing be set 45 days from the order admitting the petition.

HB 2807 Property: New law creating the Oklahoma Community Protection Act.
Sponsor: Representative Moore.

Status: On March 4, 2014 the measure passed the House by a vote of 66-26 and has been referred to the Senate for consideration. A substitute version of the measure passed the Senate Judiciary Committee on March 25, 2014 and is awaiting consideration by the Senate.

The measure limits a political subdivisions ability to adopt or implement policy recommendations that deliberately or inadvertently infringe upon or restrict private property rights and establishes damages of 10 times the property's value if taken in violation of the measure.

HB 3359 Liens: New law creating the Oklahoma Construction Registry Act.
Sponsor: Representative Echols.

Status: On March 11, 2014 the measure passed the House by a vote of 92-0. The Senate referred the measure to both its Business and Commerce Committee and then to its Appropriations Committee. On March 27, 2014 the measure passed the Business and Commerce Committee and on April 9, 2014 the measure passed the Appropriations Committee and is currently awaiting consideration by the Senate.

The measure allows for mechanic and materialmen's liens to be perfected in and to real property on which labor preformed and/or material utilized in absent of full payment by posting a verified statement of account to the yet to be constructed "construction registry website." Said posting must occur within fifteen (15) days after the contractor or subcontractor has provided labor or materials for the lien to be valid. An action to enforce a valid lien must be brought within two (2) years from the date on which the last of the material was furnished or the last of the labor was performed.

ACTIVE SENATE BILLS INTRODUCED IN THE 2013-2014 SESSION

SB 355 Guardianship: Amending Okl. Stat. tit. 30 §§ 1-123 & 4-307
Sponsor: Senator Anderson and Representative McCullough.

Status: Measure passed the Senate by a vote of 43 - 0 on February 27, 2013. An amended version of the measure passed the House by a vote of 85 – 2 on April 2, 2013 and has been sent to the Senate for reconsideration. The Senate rejected the House amendments and requested a conference. On May 23, 2013 the Conferees reported unable to agree. The measure will carry over to the 2014 session for further consideration.

Measure would amend the current statute(s) to state that letters of guardianship are valid for no longer than fifteen (15) months, unless renewed by the court via order at each annual report.

SB 1077 Attorney's Lien: Amending Okla. Stat. tit. 5 § 6
Sponsor: Senator Crain and Representative Grau

Status: On February 25, 2014 the measure passed the Senate by a vote of 40-0 and has been sent to the House of Representatives for consideration. On April 15, 2014 an amended measure passed the Senate by a vote of 79-6 and has been sent back to the House for consideration.

The measure would amend the current statute to establish a formal procedure for attorneys to claim attorney's liens on real property. In order to claim an attorney's lien on real property, the attorney must file a Notice of Attorney's Lien with the County Clerk where the real property is located. Measure sets forth minimum requirements of Notice. Further, the Notice of Attorney's Lien must be filed within one year. An action to enforce Attorney's Lien must be brought within 10 years of recording of Notice of Attorney's Lien. If prior to act, the Lien is enforceable from the "effective date" of the Attorney's Lien.

SB 1448 Vital Statistics: Amending Okla. Stat. tit. 63 § 1-323
Sponsor: Senator Holt and Representative Hall

Status: On March 4, 2014 the measure passed the Senate by a vote of 45-0 and has been sent to the House of Representatives for consideration. On April 10, 2014 an amended version of the measure passed the House Judiciary Committee and is awaiting consideration by the House.

Measure would amend the current statute to state that death certificates shall be considered publicly available records 75 years after a person's death and birth certificates shall be made publicly available 125 years after a person's birth.

SB 1475 Durable Powers of Attorney: Amending Okla. Stat. tit. 16 §§ 1074 and 1075.
Sponsor: Senator Anderson.

Status: On March 5, 2014 the measure passed the Senate by a vote of 44-0 and has been referred to the House of Representatives for consideration. On April 9, 2014 an amended version of the measure passed the House Judiciary Committee and is awaiting consideration by the House.

The measure would amend Okla. Stat. tit. 16 § 1074 to allow a court appointed conservator, guardian or other fiduciary charged with managing the principal's person or estate to revoke an existing attorney-in-fact, and that the attorney-in-fact would be accountable to the court appointed fiduciary as well as to the existing principal. Okla. Stat. tit. 16 § 1075 would be amended to allow a durable power of attorney recorded with the county clerk to stay in effect until a revocation is filed of record with said clerk.

A. OKLAHOMA COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS

1. JMA ENERGY COMPANY, LLC v. STATE EX REL. DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION (2012 OK CIV APP 55)

TOPIC: SOVEREIGN IMMUNITY

HOLDING: STATE IS NOT IMMUNE AS A SURFACE OWNER TO PROCEEDINGS UNDER THE SURFACE DAMAGES ACT

FACTS: Drilling operator intended to commence operations on land owned by the State of Oklahoma (DOT). Negotiations with DOT failed and, when operator filed petition to appoint commissioners to determine the amount of damages under the Surface Damages Act, ODOT filed Motion to Dismiss based on sovereign immunity.

TRIAL COURT RULING: Trial Court held that the State is not immune from the Surface Damages Act.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: The Court of Appeal initially denied an Application and Petition, and, after the trial court denied several additional motions by ODOT (Motion to Dismiss for delay and exception to Report of Commissioners), Court of Appeals affirmed the trial court and held (1) sovereign immunity was totally abrogated as to all matters (both tort and contract) by Vanderpool v. State, 1983 OK 82, (2) limited sovereign immunity was reinstated in 1984 by adoption of the Governmental Torts Claims Act (51 O.S. §151 et seq.) and only provides the ability to sue the State as to all claims except “Tort” claims, (3) the damages to be determined and paid under the Surface Damages Act (52 O.S. §§318.2-318.9) (“SDA”) are not related to a tort, and (4) there is no express exemption in the SDA for the State (although Indian lands are exempt).

[Author’s Note: This is a good general discussion of the history and current status of “sovereign immunity.”]

2. AVB BANK v. HANCOCK (2012 OK CIV APP 68)

TOPIC: GUARANTY OF MORTGAGE

HOLDING: A GUARANTY AGREEMENT, WAIVING THE ANTI-DEFICIENCY DEFENSE, IS NOT DEFEATED BY ASSERTION THAT GUARANTOR ENTITY IS ALTER EGO OF DEBTOR

FACTS: In a mortgage foreclosure action, debtor admitted all facts concerning execution of a Note and Mortgage, and guarantor admitted execution of guaranty as a LLC, both admitted default on note and mortgage. LLC as guarantor tried to deny liability under Guaranty claiming the agreement was unenforceable because the individual debtors who signed the note and mortgage were the “partners” of the LLC. The State of California courts have allowed a defense where the guaranty is not enforceable where the lender forces the debtor to create an entity to give a guaranty which waives the debtor’s statutory anti-deficiency rights.

TRIAL COURT RULING: Guarantor was liable.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: Affirmed, stating:

“¶10 Oklahoma has a well-developed line of authority affirming a guarantor's right to waive most statutory protections, pursuant to the parties' freedom to contract as they wish. See Founders Bank, supra; JP Morgan Chase Bank v. Specialty Restaurants, Inc., 2010 OK 65, 243 P.3d 8. We are not prepared to adopt a rule from another state which would mark an abrupt departure from Oklahoma authority.”

3. STATE EX REL. DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION v. K & L LEASING, INC. (2012 OK CIV APP 71)

TOPIC: CONDEMNATION

HOLDING: LANDOWNER IS NOT LIABLE FOR COSTS IF WITHDREW DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

FACTS: ODOT and landowner both demanded jury trial over amount of damages to be awarded in a condemnation action. Landowner withdrew demand for jury trial shortly before trial (5 days), but ODOT proceeded to trial anyway. Jury award granted the landowner less than from the commissioners' award ($116,250 v. $196,733). ODOT requested costs as the prevailing party.

TRIAL COURT RULING: Trial Court granted attorney fees to ODOT.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: Reversed; because landowner withdrew demand for jury trial before trial, such landowner is not liable for costs fees even when the award was below the commissioners' award.

4. DEE v. HORTON (2012 OK CIV APP 80)

TOPIC: MECHANIC'S LIEN AND LIS PENDENS

HOLDING: ORDER RELEASING A MECHANIC'S AND MATERIAL LIEN, AND RELATED LIS PENDENS IS NOT "APPEALABLE BY RIGHT"

FACTS: Mechanic filed Mechanic's Lien and related lis pendens, but no foreclosure action. Landowner filed suit to quiet title, for breach of contract, negligence, and other claims. Mechanic filed answer, but no counterclaim to foreclose its Mechanic's Lien. Trial Court was requested to issue, at landowner's request, an emergency order to remove lien and lis pendens.

TRIAL COURT RULING: Trial Court granted landowner's motion and issued an emergency order removing the lien and lis pendens.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: When mechanic lien claimant filed an appeal of the trial court's emergency order, the Court of Civil Appeals dismissed the appeal and remanded it for further proceedings because (1) the emergency order was interlocutory (12 O.S. §952 (b)(3)), (2) was not certified for immediate appeal, and (3) was not appealable by right (12 O.S. §952 (b)(2)), as either (a) an "attachment" (12 O.S. §993(A)(1)), or (b) a provisional remedy (12 O.S. §993(A)(3)).

5. WRT REALTY, INC. v. BOSTON INVESTMENT GROUP II, L.L.C. (2012 OK CIV APP 82)

TOPIC: ADVERSE POSSESSION AND ACQUIESCENCE

HOLDING: CITY VACATION OF STREET, BEFORE STATUTE WAS ENACTED ALLOWING REOPENING, VESTED TITLE IN ADJACENT OWNERS

FACTS: In 1902, City vacated 9 platted streets to provide a right of way easement to a railroad. The railroad abandoned the right of way in the late 1970s or early 1980s. Prior to 1984, the owner of one side of the abandoned ROW installed a six-foot tall metal chain link fence on the roadway 20 feet past the center line of the roadway, adding 20 feet to their one half of the ROW. Appellee occupied such disputed property over 15 years. In 2007, the City again vacated the streets. In 2008, the City's right to reopen the street was foreclosed in a court action. In 2008, the two owners of the lands on either side of the street sold the property, including the disputed property, to a third party, and it was agreed that a court proceeding would be instituted to determine who owned the disputed property and, therefore, was entitled to that portion of the sale proceeds.

TRIAL COURT RULING: On cross summary judgment motions, the Trial Court ruled Appellees proved they fenced and occupied the 20-foot strip for over 15 years and thereby proved adverse possession.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: Because the street was vacated in 1902, before the statute was enacted to allow the City to reopen the street (after being initially closed by ordinance), and because the railroad right of way easement was abandoned, and then the fence was built and the fenced property was occupied for over 15 years, (1) all elements of adverse possession were proven, except for proof of “hostility,” and (2) acquiescence was not proven because no evidence was presented of the parties’ agreement in the construction of the fence. The trial court was accordingly partially affirmed, and partially remanded to establish either hostility in the occupancy, or mutual agreement in construction of the fence.

6. FANSLER v. FANSLER (2012 OK CIV APP 95)

TOPIC: APPOINTMENT OF RECEIVER FOR TRUST

HOLDING: WHERE TRUSTEES (DIVORCED PARTIES) ARE DEADLOCKED AND UNWILLING TO CARRY OUT PURPOSE OF TRUST WHICH WAS TO SELL DIVORCED PARTIES’ HOUSE, APPOINTMENT OF RECEIVER IS PROPER

FACTS: Parties got divorced and, under a settlement agreement, placed residence in trust, with former husband and wife as trustees. Wife was given possession of the house. The express purpose of the trust was to sell the house and split the proceeds. 10 years went by and no sale occurred, but wife collected rent on the house in the interim. Husband filed suit to remove wife as trustee or appoint receiver. Wife asserted that trial court lacked jurisdiction over the trustees because the suit was styled and the parties were served as individuals and not as trustees.

TRIAL COURT RULING: Court assumed control of trust and directed parties to cooperate and sell the residence. 10 months later, with no sale occurring, the court appointed a receiver to control and sell the house. Wife appealed.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: Affirmed Trial Court, and held that parties were properly joined as trustees although only named as individuals.

7. THORNTON FAMILY, L.L.C. v. YAZEL (2013 OK CIV APP 2)

TOPIC: AD VALOREM TAXES

HOLDING: THERE IS NO AD VALOREM TAX DUE ON INCOMPLETE STRUCTURES

FACTS: Landowner bought land in 2003 and removed structures from it. During 2008, landowner began construction of a car dealership service and sales building. It was assessed on January 1, 2009 at $3 million as raw land.

In 2010, before construction was complete, the County Assessor gave notice of an Assessed value of $14 million. Land owner informally protested and the amount was lowered to $8 million. The landowner formally protested and the County Board of Equalization sustained the County Assessor's valuation of $8 million. Landowner filed suit in the District Court.

TRIAL COURT RULING: On cross motions for summary judgment, the trial court ruled the value of the raw land was $2.7 million, and an existing warehouse was worth $400,000, for a total value of $3.1 million.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: Affirmed, saying the statute implied taxes were only due on completed structures, agreeing with the result (but not the precise holding) of an Attorney General Opinion which said "A plain reading of" this statute shows only a completed building adds value for tax purposes.

8. COUNTRY PLACE MORTGAGE, LTD. v. BROWN (2013 OK CIV APP 3)

TOPIC: MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE JURY INSTRUCTIONS

RULING: JURY INSTRUCTIONS WHICH FAIL TO INCLUDE "BALANCE DUE" ON THE NOTE IN THE MEASURE OF DAMAGES ARE IN ERROR

FACTS: At trial on an action to enforce a note and to foreclose on a mortgage, with a counterclaim by the debtors for fraud, the initial proposed jury instructions submitted by the lender provided that "the amount of the damages should be determined as the balance due under the note." The lender sought to amend its own instructions to add "taxes, insurance and other expenses" to the instructions. The instruction that the court finally gave the jury provided "you must then fix the amount of its damages, the taxes, insurance and expenses." Thus, the court dropped the language about "the balance due under the note".

TRIAL COURT RULING: The trial court received a verdict from the jury for $18,000, which only covered the $18,171.18 for taxes, insurance, and attorney fees, but not the balance due under the note, which balance was $153,044.61. The verdict gave nothing for the debtors' fraud claim. The lender sought a new trial or a judgment notwithstanding the verdict, and lost. The lender appealed.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: Reversed and remanded "for new trial solely on the issue of [lender's] damages" to include the balance due on the note. The jury sent questions to the judge asking "What amount is the Plaintiff asking for and how is that broken down? Is there an Exhibit that shows this?" and "If we find for the Plaintiff, does that allow their foreclosure? Then we will put sum of ___ for anything in addition to the foreclosure?" There is no transcript or record showing the court's responses to the jury's questions. The appellate court found that the instruction was contrary to law, and "probably resulted in a miscarriage of justice."

9. STATE EX REL. DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION v. SUTHERLAND LUMBER AND HOME CENTER, INC. (2013 OK CIV APP 9)

TOPIC: CONDEMNATION AWARD OF COSTS

RULING: AWARD OF COSTS IN A CONDEMNATION PROCEEDING, INCLUDING ATTORNEY FEES, IS NOT JUSTIFIED IF THE LOSING PARTY DID NOT DEMAND A JURY TRIAL

FACTS: Only ODOT, as the condemning party, demanded a jury trial and the jury awarded a lesser amount than the commissioners' report ($427,280 v. $180,802). ODOT sought recovery (a) for "deposition preparation and deposition testimony of the Department's witnesses" and (b) for "expenses for the service of subpoenas, costs for copying papers necessarily used at trial, and reasonable expense for taking and transcribing deposition testimony."

TRIAL COURT RULING: ODOT requested and was awarded an amount for each of the two sets of expenses. The landowner had stipulated and agreed to pay the first category of expenses, but not the second. The landowner appealed saying neither amount was justified by law, because, according to statute, such costs are awarded only if the losing party demanded the jury trial. In this case, it was ODOT who demanded the jury trial, and was the winner, not the loser.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: The appellate court affirmed the granting of the costs which the landowner had agreed to pay, and reversed as the other costs, because, by statute, no costs are to be awarded unless the party requesting the jury trial loses at trial.

9. MIDFIRST BANK v. WILSON (2013 OK CIV APP 15)

TOPIC: STANDING TO FORECLOSE A MORTGAGE AND NOTE

RULING: FAILURE TO ATTACH AN AUTHENTICATED AND PROPERLY

ENDORSED NOTE TO A MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE PLEADING IS FATAL

FACTS: MidFirst sued to foreclose a note and mortgage which was initially issued to Harry Mortgage and endorsed to Washington Mutual Bank. No endorsement to MidFirst was ever shown. In response to a Motion to Dismiss, MidFirst claimed the note contained an endorsement "in blank" (i.e., to bearer), but the note attached to such response failed to show such endorsement. The response also included an affidavit asserting that MidFirst was the holder of the note, but no note was attached to the affidavit. The Motion to Dismiss was not decided. MidFirst filed a Motion for Summary Judgment and the debtors failed to respond.

TRIAL COURT RULING: MidFirst's Motion for Summary Judgment for foreclosure was granted. The debtors sought to vacate such judgment, but such motion was denied. The debtors appealed.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: The order denying the debtors' motion to vacate is reversed; the judgment in favor of MidFirst is vacated; and the case is remanded for further proceedings to determine who held the note.

[AUTHOR'S NOTE: This case continues to remind foreclosing attorneys to properly document IN THE RECORD their claim to "Standing" by showing they held the note when the foreclosure petition was filed.]

10. RICHARDS v. BANC-FIRST SHAWNEE (2013 OK CIV APP 16)

TOPIC: ECONOMIC DURESS THROUGH DEMAND NOTES

RULING: A THREAT TO CALL DUE A DEMAND LOAN IS NOT SUFFICIENT EVIDENCE OF ECONOMIC DURESS, TO TOLL A STATUTE OF LIMITATION TO SUE FOR BREACH OF CONTRACT BY BANK

FACTS: A demand note and construction mortgage were converted to a permanent loan, but only after borrower was allegedly denied certain credits towards the construction loan, and was allegedly threatened with the note being called due if he protested the lack of such credit. Ten years later the loans were paid off and the debtor then sued for breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty, and duress. Lender asserted statute of limitations.

TRIAL COURT RULING: At trial, after the debtors presented their evidence, the lender moved for a directed verdict which was granted. Debtors appealed.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: Affirmed. Because the threat to call the note due was reasonable, since the note was a demand note, there was not other evidence sufficient to establish economic duress.

11. STILLWATER NATIONAL BANK & TRUST CO. v. COOK (2013 OK CIV APP 17)

TOPIC: APPLICATION FOR ATTORNEY FEES

RULING: THE FILING OF AN APPLICATION FOR ATTORNEY FEES IN AN ACTION ON A MECHANICS AND MATERIALMAN'S LIEN PRIOR TO THE DECISION DENYING THE ARCHITECT'S MOTION TO RECONSIDER JUDGMENT IN FAVOR OF THE LENDER IS NOT PREMATURE

FACTS: Lender made a construction loan, and, in anticipation of construction, an architect prepared plans, and, upon the developer's failure to pay for such plans, the architect filed a mechanics and materialman's lien. Before any construction began, the developer defaulted on the loan and gave the lender a deed in lieu of foreclosure. The lender sued to quiet title against the architect.

TRIAL COURT RULING: The title was quieted in favor of the lender, who filed an application for attorney fees. Such application was filed between the date the architect filed its motion for reconsideration and the date the court denied such motion for reconsideration. The denial of the motion for consideration denied attorneys fees, but stated they would be reconsidered "upon application." Without re-application for attorney fees, the matter was set for hearing on such fees and the original application granted. Architect appeals the adverse rulings concerning the lien and the attorney fees.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: Court of Civil Appeals affirmed the order denying the existence and priority of the architect's lien, and the Supreme Court denied Cert. Architect again disputed the grant of attorney fees, due to allegedly being applied for prematurely and then not reapplied for. Court of Civil Appeals affirmed saying statute does not prevent early application for attorney fees, just late (over 30 days) application, and, therefore, the initial "early" application (i.e., prior to the judgment on the motion to reconsider the lien matter) was timely and proper, and must be granted to lender as the prevailing party.

12. BACON & SON, INC. v. CITY OF TULSA (2013 OK CIV APP 20)

TOPIC: SPECIAL ASSESSMENT DISTRICTS CONSTITUTIONALITY

RULING: SPECIAL ASSESSMENT NOTICE PROCEDURES AND ALLOCATION OF BENEFITS AND SHARE OF COSTS ARE CONSTITUTIONAL

FACTS: Landowner challenged constitutionality of the special assessment statutes due to alleged lack of due process in the assessment district creation process, and the allocation of estimated benefits and allocation of share of costs. Two hearings were held and landowner waited until later than 30 days after the first hearing to file this action.

TRIAL COURT RULING: Trial Court granted summary judgment to City and held that the statutory due process which was provided was constitutionally adequate in that affected parties received notice including two hearings (for creation of a district and then separately for approval of assessments) and a notice that they could review the allocation information at the City offices, concerning estimated benefits and costs. Also it was held that the landowner failed to protest within 30 days of the first hearing, and is therefore, by statute, barred from such protest.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: Affirmed.

13. STATE ex rel. DEPT. OF TRANSPORTATION v. METCALF (2013 OK CIV APP 28)

TOPIC: CONDEMNATION PROCEDURES

RULING: STATUTORY PROCEDURES CALLING FOR AN APPRAISAL BEFORE MAKING AN OFFER TO PURCHASE ARE NOT MANDATORY BEFORE COMMENCING CONDEMNATION PROCEEDING

FACTS: ODOT made a offer to purchase land based on an appraisal, and then, at the request of the landowner reduced its taking from a full taking of the parcel (2 acres; $130,650) to a partial taking (0.28 acres; $11,000). The first offer for a full taking was based on an appraisal but the second offer concerning a partial taking just relied on the original appraisal to compute a new offer. The offers were not accepted, and no counteroffer was made. The proceeding was commenced.

TRIAL COURT RULING: Trial court dismissed the proceeding due to ODOT's failure to procure an appraisal for the smaller tract, thereby making the offer invalid, because it was not based on an appraisal. Such appraisal is called for in 27 O.S. Section 13.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: Reversed and remanded for determination of appropriate amount of compensation. The steps provided in 27 O.S. Section 13 are relegated by Section 15 to being nothing more than "policies", and are not mandatory. "Based on the above [statutes and cases], the condemnor is required to make a bona fide offer to purchase the land before bringing its condemnation action. This is the only jurisdictional prerequisite. Although such offers may customarily be based on an appraisal, the statute does not require it."

[It will be interesting to see if the recent legislative enactment (described below) affects this issue:

HB1562 Landowners Bill of Rights Act
Sponsors: Representatives Jordan and Kay of the House, and Senators Treat, Marlatt, Shortey, and Brecheen of the Senate

Status: Signed into Law on April 30, 2012

The measure directs the Attorney General to "prepare a written statement that includes a 'Landowner's Bill of Rights' for a property owner whose real property may be acquired...through the use of...eminent domain authority...".]

14. IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF ROZELL (2013 OK CIV APP 35)

TOPIC: TRUST ASSETS DIVISION AND DISTRIBUTION

RULING: TRUST DIVIDING ASSETS BETWEEN BENEFICIARIES AT TRUSTOR'S DEATH VESTS IN BENEFICIARY AND IF NOT DISTRIBUTED BY THE BENEFICIARY DEATH, THEN GOES TO BENEFICIARY'S ESTATE, RATHER THAN LAPSING

FACTS: Trust provided for Trustor/Mother's Trust assets to be divided between 7 children's sub-trusts on her death, and to be distributed within 3 years thereafter. Such distribution goes to living children of deceased beneficiary, if beneficiary is not alive on division date (i.e., on death of trustor). No other provision is provided in case beneficiary dies before distribution date and has no living children, as happened here. A suit ensued between the estate of the deceased (childless) beneficiary and the trustee of the trust.

TRIAL COURT RULING: The trial court ruled the beneficiary was not alive when distribution was made, and because he had no children, the bequest to him lapsed. Beneficiary's personal representative appealed.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: Reversed and remanded. The trust "provides for a beneficiary's share to be divested upon the conditions subsequent that the beneficiary is deceased and has living children. With respect to [this beneficiary's] share, both conditions were not met. [This beneficiary] was deceased but he had no children. Therefore, his interest, which vested upon [his mother's] death, was never divested. It passed to his estate upon his death."

15. HSRE-PEP I, LLC v. HSRE-PEP CRIMSON PARK LLC (2013 OK CIV APP 38)

TOPIC: ATTORNEYS FEES IN MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE

RULING: JUNIOR LIENHOLDER CAN UNSUCCESSFULLY CONTEST THE PRIORITY OF THE LIEN OF THE PRIMARY MORTGAGE HOLDER AND STILL NOT OWE ATTORNEYS FEES

FACTS: First lender sought to foreclose using the non-judicial foreclosure procedure, and, even though it achieved a settlement with the debtor, it was forced into a regular court foreclosure action where it incurred attorney fees, due to the assertion by the second lender that its lien was ahead of the first lender.

TRIAL COURT RULING: Trial court determined that first lender had the first and prior mortgage lien ahead of second lender. First lender elected not to pursue an award of attorney fees against the mortgagor, but, instead, sought to recover attorney fees from second lender for asserting and losing on the lien priority issue. Request was denied.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: Affirmed. The American Rule dictates that in the absence of contractual right to attorney fees or specific statutory language allowing attorney fees, no fees are allowed to the prevailing party. In addition, the case-law rule is that junior lienholders and other incidental foreclosure parties, who resist in good faith, are not subject to attorney fees because it is the mortgagor who really caused the parties to incur legal fees, and consequently it is the mortgagor and the res which must bear that burden. This is true even if the mortgagor defaults.

16. HSRE-PEP I, LLC v. HSRE-PEP CRIMSON PARK LLC (2013 OK CIV APP 40)

TOPIC: MORTGAGE LIEN PRIORITIES

RULING: ACCEPTANCE OF A DEED IN LIEU OF FORECLOSURE WITH FORGIVENESS OF ONLY IN PERSONAM LIABILITY WITH THE INTENT TO FORECLOSURE JUNIOR LIENHOLDERS DOES NOT MERGE LIEN WITH TITLE

FACTS: First lender accepted a deed in lieu of foreclosure (a special warranty deed "subject to" specified liens and interests), and forgave the debtor's in personam liability, but retained in rem liability (anticipating a future foreclosure action), while acknowledging that its mortgage was "subject to" specified other mortgages and claims. Second lender filed a foreclosure action seeking foreclosure of its mortgage against the mortgagors, and also asking that the court determine that the first lender's mortgage lien had merged into its fee title.

TRIAL COURT RULING: "The trial court determined it was not the intent of the parties to the settlement agreement to subordinate [first lender's] first mortgage to [second lender's] second mortgage. The trial court granted summary judgment in favor of [first lender]. [Second lender] appeals.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: Affirmed. The appellate court considered (a) the language of the special warranty deed making it "subject to" the listed interests, (b) the retention of in rem liability by the first lender, and (c) the Restatement (Third) of Property comment that "The doctrine of merger does not apply to mortgages or affect the enforceability of a mortgage obligation." It concluded the first lender's mortgage lien was still senior.

17. NOBLE v. NOBLE (2013 OK CIV APP 41)

TOPIC: PARTITION PROCEEDING

RULING: PARTY TO A PARTITION ACTION DOES NOT HAVE A RIGHT OF REDEMPTION THAT LASTS UNTIL CONFIRMATION OF SHERIFF'S SALE

FACTS: Two siblings received 80 acres by inheritance from their grandfather. They could not agree to a partition in kind. One sibling filed for a partition. After the commissioners' appraisal/report was given ($528,000), and neither sibling elected to buy at that price, a sheriff's sale was held and one of the siblings purchased the land for less than the commissioner's award ($378,400). Before the hearing on the confirmation of sale, the other non-buying sibling sought to "redeem" the property at the commissioners' value.

TRIAL COURT RULING: Trial court denied the attempted "redemption", and a sheriff's deed was issued. The losing sibling filed an appeal

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: Affirmed. There is no statutory right of redemption, and there is not an analogy to a mortgage foreclosure or tax sale redemption setting where the party stands to lose the entire interest. In a partition, neither party has a senior right, and each party will receive a proportional payment.

[AUTHOR'S COMMENT: There is, in effect, a statutory right of "redemption" provided in the partition statute, which arises at the time of the commissioners' report/appraisal when either owner can elect to purchase and thereby "redeem" the property from the forced sale. Such right expires when the election period passes.]

18. CITY OF OKLAHOMA CITY v. FIRST AMERICAN TITLE & TRUST COMPANY (2013 OK CIV APP 42)

TOPIC: SURETY BOND EXONERATION

RULING: CHANGES IN AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PRINCIPAL AND THE SUBCONTRACTOR DOES NOT EXONERATE THE SURETY, SINCE THE CHANGES WERE NOT TO THE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PRINCIPAL AND THE OBLIGEE

FACTS: Principal/developer gave a surety bond from the obligee (First American) to the City insuring that it would complete its efforts to construct a subdivision, including paving the streets. Principal became insolvent and stopped its development, including halting payments to the subcontractor which was paving the streets. City sued surety to pay to complete the development, principally the streets. Principal and subcontractor were also joined. Surety argued that it was exonerated because the principal and subcontractor modified their subcontract.

TRIAL COURT RULING: Trial court granted summary judgment to surety declaring that the bond was exonerated by the contract modifications. Obligee/City appealed.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: Reversed and remanded. Exoneration only occurs when the contract between the principal and the obligee is altered without the surety's consent, which is not present here. The matter was reversed and remanded to determine all the parties' respective obligations and breaches.

19. LOPEZ v. ROLLINS (2013 OK CIV APP 43)

TOPIC: MISREPRESENTATION OF SQUARE FOOTAGE OF RESIDENCE

RULING: REPRESENTATION OF SQUARE FOOTGAGE OF RESIDENCE BY SELLER AND REALTORS SUBJECT THEM TO TRIAL, INSPITE OF RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY CONDITION DISCLOSURE ACT (RPCDA), AS TO WHETHER SUCH REPRESENTATIONS WERE MADE REASONABLY, RECKLESSLY, OR WITH INTENTIONAL DISHONESTY.

FACTS: County assessor showed the square footage of the residence to be 4,614 of livable space. An appraiser for the seller found the house to contain 5,053 square feet. The sellers claimed they had added an addition and that the real square footage was 5,053. The realtors (a) listed the house as having 5,053 square feet "per court house", and (b) prepared marketing materials showing 5,053 sf "per appraisal" and "per court houses". The listing and marketing information contained disclaimers as to accuracy of the information. The buyers' appraiser relied on the earlier appraiser's sf when preparing an appraisal for the lender. After buying the house, the buyers learned when the county assessor reassessed the house that it contained 4,130 sf, not 5,053 sf. The buyer had its own appraisal done and was told there was 4,383 sf. The buyers sued the sellers and realtors for fraud and negligent misrepresentation, sued sellers for breach of contract, sued the realtors for violations of the Real Estate License Code, and sued the lender's appraiser for negligence.

TRIAL COURT RULING: Trail court granted summary judgment to the sellers, realtors and lenders appraiser, because the buyers failed to sue under the RPCDA, which was "the exclusive vehicle for recovery where misinformation is communicated in the sale residential property." In addition, the trial court gave summary judgment to the lender's appraiser, "because there was no evidence that Buyers relied on the square footage reported in [lender's appraiser's] appraisal before purchasing the house." Buyers appealed.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: Reversed and remanded, as to the sellers and realtors, for the trier of fact to determine whether the misrepresentation of square footage was "reasonable, reckless, or intentionally dishonest." The appellate court found (a) the RPCDA does not require the disclosure of square footage, and, therefore, is not the sole remedy for related misrepresentations, and (b) the waivers and disclaimers did not protect the realtors. The appellate court quoted the earlier Oklahoma Supreme Court opinion (Bowman v. Presley, 2009 OK 48): "Representations of the size of real property are statements of material fact, not expressions of opinion, and a buyer need not conduct a separate investigation to ascertain their truth." The Appellate affirmed the summary judgment in favor of the lender's appraiser because the buyers did not know of or rely on such appraisal.

20. E&F COX FAMILY TRUST v. CITY OF TULSA (2013 OK CIV APP 45)

TOPIC: SPECIAL ASSESSMENT DISTRICTS

RULING: FAILURE TO FILE WRITTEN OBJECTION TO PROPOSED SPECIAL DISTRICT DURING PUBLIC HEARING ENDS ABILITY TO CHALLENGE CREATION OF DISTRICT

FACTS: When City of Tulsa proposed a special assessment district to build the multi-purpose facility in downtown Tulsa, now known as ONEOK Field, there was a public hearing before the City Council to consider the $60 million assessment. None of the parties who subsequently filed this lawsuit appeared and filed a written protest, although they variously filed pre-hearing written protests, and email protests during the hearing, and an individual, as an individual, (rather than for a related trust, which trust later sued) appeared and protested verbally but failed to file a written protest. When the district was approved, the various protestants filed a declaratory action to halt the creation of the assessment district.

TRIAL COURT RULING: Trial court dismissed all but one of the protestants because they failed to file a written objection during the public hearing, as required by the statute. Strict enforcement of the statute was justified because its language is clear. Trial court allowed one protestant to proceed. Motions for summary judgment were denied and at trial the protestant lost. Both the dismissed protestants and the continuing protestant all appealed.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: Affirmed. Strict compliance with the protest process is required and the protestants failed to comply. The continuing protestant objected in the appeal to various discovery disputes and to lack of adequate time to conduct discovery and to prepare for a non-jury trial. Such continuing protestant failed to identify any facts or authority regarding the core issue: "whether City Council had a rational basis upon which to determine property in District was reasonably expected to increase in value as a result of the creation of District...?"

21. E & F COX FAMILY TRUST v. CITY OF TULSA (2013 OK CIV APP 47)

TOPIC: SPECIAL ASSESSMENT DISTRICTS

RULING: FAILURE TO FILE SUIT TIMELY TO OBJECT TO CREATION OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENT DISTRICT AND TO BENEFITS TO ONE'S TRACT BARS SUIT

FACTS: Creation of special assessment district entails two steps/hearings, including (a) a first stage hearing to consider "the advisability of construction of an improvement and the amount to be assessed against the tract of land to pay for it", and (b) the second stage hearing to approve the "determination of the actual assessments levied on properties...". The protestants failed to file a legal action within the 30 day period after the first stage hearing, and instead waited until after the second stage hearing and filed a suit within the 15 day period after the second stage hearing. However, their challenge only related to the subject matter of the first stage hearing: "attacking the amount of benefit, or lack of it to their tracts...".

TRIAL COURT RULING: Trial court granted summary judgment to City of Tulsa declaring the suit was untimely.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: Affirmed. "Plaintiffs had the opportunity within 30 days after City created District to file an action attacking the amount of benefit, or lack of it to their tracts. [11 O.S.] §39-108(D) Failing to avail themselves of such a remedy bars them from a right of action thereafter."

B. OKLAHOMA SUPREME COURT

22. IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF DICKSON (2011 OK 96)

TOPIC: PROBATE AS TO PRETERMITTED HEIR AND PROPER PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE

RULING: PATERNITY OF ILLEGITIMATE SON, AS PRETERMITTED HEIR, CAN BE DETERMINED DURING PROBATE, AND PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE CANNOT BE BUSINESS PARTNER OF DECEDENT IN INTESTATE PROCEEDING

FACTS: Probate was filed by son of decedent and he was appointed as personal representative. Illegitimate son sued to be determined to have paternity confirmed and to receive a share of the estate. Illegitimate son sought to challenge the holographic will, and, once the personal representative of the estate revealed that he was a business partner of the decedent, the illegitimate son sought the personal representative's removal.

TRIAL COURT RULING: Trial court held: Powell was an unintentionally omitted (illegitimate) child from the will being probated, and was entitled to his statutory share of the estate; and the holographic will was admitted over Powell's objections and the personal representative was allowed to serve even though he was the business partner of the decedent, based on the objections being untimely.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: Reversed and remanded on all issues, determining that the trial court erred when it allowed post-death determination of paternity. Powell sought certiorari.

SUPREME COURT RULING: Affirmed in part, and reversed and remanded in part. Reversed the trial court decision that his contest of the admission of the holographic will was not timely filed. The form of the objection was improperly titled "Objection to Application for Sale of Real Estate", but the substance was adequate and was timely.

Affirmed that paternity can be determined in the probate of the deceased parent, rather having to be done before death. Cases to the contrary are overruled.

Reversed as to the trial court allowing the decedent's business partner as the personal representative. Such prohibition applies in intestate proceedings or when the business partner is not named as personal representative in a will. Also, there was no delay in objecting to such appointment.

23. AOF/SHADYBROOK AFFORDABLE HOUSING CORPORATION v. YAZEL
(2012 OK 59)

TOPIC: AD VALOREM TAX EXEMPTION OF CHARITABLE USE PROPERTY

RULING: APARTMENT COMPLEX FUNDED WITH PROCEEDS FROM SALE OF FEDERALLY TAX EXEMPT BONDS IS EXEMPT FROM AD VALOREM TAXATION
(PRIOR CASE OVERRULED)

FACTS: An apartment complex was funded with proceeds from sale of federally tax exempt bonds, and provided low cost units "almost exclusively to persons of little financial means who were either disabled or over the age of sixty-two (62)." The complex was treated as being exempt from ad valorem taxation from 1998 to 2003, and then started taxing them. The complex paid taxes under protest from 2004 to 2006, when it was sold. The reason for the exemption was due to the Oklahoma Constitutional exemption for charitable purposes (Art. 10, Section 6). However, in 2004 the legislature removed the exemption from properties purchased with federally tax exempt bonds. The complex sued to recover the taxes paid under protest.

TRIAL COURT RULING: Trial court ruled for the apartment complex, initially and on remand, holding that it "was 'physically dedicated to a charitable purpose' under Article 10, §6 of the Oklahoma Constitution and that Shadybrook's use of the property during 2004, 2005, and 2006 did not fall under the rule announced by this Court in London Square Village."

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: The Court of Civil Appeals reversed and remanded the case to the "trial court to determine the factual issue of whether Shadybrook's use of the property was for charitable purposes under Article 10, §6, 'so as to overcome the Supreme Court's ruling in London Square...".

SUPREME COURT RULING: Affirmed trial court. "We find that Shadybrook has overcome its burden of providing the existence of an exemption and has demonstrated that its operation of the low-income housing complex was a charitable use entitling it to the ad valorem tax exemption in §6. London Square Village is overruled. The statutory language in 68 O.S. 2887(8)(a)(2)(b) excluding property funded with proceeds from the sale of federally tax-exempt bonds from ad valorem exemption is unconstitutional. We affirm the trial court's order in all respects."

24. COUNTY RECORDS, INC. v. ARMSTRONG (2012 OK 60)

TOPIC: COPYING LAND RECORDS

RULING: THIRD PARTY CANNOT HAVE COPY OF TRACT INDEX FOR PURPOSES OF SALE FOR PROFIT

FACTS: "Company, in business of operating a website that provides land records to on-line subscribers, requested electronic copies of the official tract index and land documents from the Rogers County [sic] Court Clerk. The requests were denied and the company brought an action for declaratory judgment asserting a right to the documents under the Open Records Act and a determination of the appropriate fee."

TRIAL COURT RULING: Summary judgment was granted for the company.

SUPREME COURT RULING: The Supreme Court "retained the appeal on its own motion, and reverses and remands with instructions to enter judgment for the Rogers County Clerk." The Open Records Act and the Oklahoma Abstractor's Act prohibit the county clerk from providing copies of the land documents or index (either paper or electronic) to anyone who seeks to resell such information. However, "Rogers County contracts with KellPro, Inc. to create and maintain a website for the purpose of publishing text information entered by the County Clerk's Office into the KellPro software along with images of documents stored electronically at the clerk's office. Rogers County pay KellPro a fee based on the volume of data stored and KellPro makes copies of the images of land documents accessible for a fee payable to the County Clerk. ... The contract between Rogers County Clerk and KellPro specifically provides that the electronic data remain the property of the County while KellPro retains its intellectual property rights to its software." The difference between KellPro and the plaintiff's operations is that KellPro maintains the website for the County for a charge to the county, but all proceeds from sale of the information goes to the County, but the plaintiff seeks access to the information solely for its own profit.

25. AKIN v. CASTLEBERRY (2012 OK 79)

TOPIC: ADVERSE POSSESSION

HOLDING: MIXED OR DUAL POSSESSION IS ALWAYS FATAL TO A CLAIM OF ADVERSE POSSESSION

FACTS: Mr. and Mrs. McKinney owned title to a landlocked set of three parcels (Government Lots 1, 2 & 3) They sold, at auction, and deeds were give to the Akins (father and son) covering only Lot 1. The widowed McKinney gave a deed to a third party Castleberry covering Lots 2 & 3. The Castleberry's paid taxes on the two lots thereafter. The three lots are landlocked with Akin owning land on two sides, a third person owning the land on a third side, with a river on the fourth side. The land was only good for cattle grazing, and recreational uses, such as hunting. The Akins had fenced the perimeter of the 3 lots and had a locked gate controlling access to it. Castleberry's claimed to have a key to such gate. The Castleberry's did not live in that county. Akins and Castleberry's both claimed they used the property for recreational purposes. Akins gave a right of way easement for an oil and gas pipeline. The Castleberry's had an agreement drawn up for the Akins to sign, giving the Castleberry's access to the three lots for cattle grazing, hunting and access to the river. The Akins did not sign the agreement. The Akins filed suit to confirm their ownership of the disputed two lots relying on the deed from the auction only giving them one of the three lots, plus allegations of adverse possession.

TRIAL COURT RULING: Initially, after trial, the trial court granted title to the Akins based on adverse possession, and after the Court of Civil Appeals reversed and remanded it for the trial court after the first appeal to hear certain excluded evidence from the Castleberry's, the trial court denied title to the Akins based on their claim of adverse possession, and affirmed title in the Castleberrys..

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: On the second appeal, the Court of Civil Appeal reversed.

SUPREME COURT RULING: The Supreme Court granted cert. and vacated the Court of Civil Appeals latest decision, and affirmed the Trial Court's decision in favor of the Castleberry's, confirming title to the two lots in the Castleberry's. The appellate court discussed the law concerning the requirements to prove adverse possession, emphasizing that adverse possession is not favored, and that all presumptions favor the record owner. The court focused on the "mixed or dual possession (shared use)", holding that such shared "possession can never ripen into exclusive dominion".

26. SMITH v. VILLAREAL (2012 OK 114)

TOPIC: SEPARATE MARITAL ESTATE

HOLDING: PRESUMPTION THAT PROPERTY TITLED TO BOTH SPOUSES AS JOINT

TENANTS MUST BE TREATED AS PROPERTY OF THE MARITAL ESTATE IN A DIVORCE CAN BE REBUTTED BY CLEAR AND CONVINCING EVIDENCE, SUCH AS THE AFFIDAVIT OF THE LENDER THAT THE INCLUSION OF THE OTHER SPOUSE'S NAME WAS ERROR, AND THE PURCHASE WAS MADE WITH ONLY ONE SPOUSE'S FUNDS

FACTS: Husband remarried, and, during a divorce of the second wife, he purchased two rental properties for his two daughters from his first marriage. The two purchases were made before the divorce was final, and were made with his own separate funds, although the deeds showed the husband and wife as joint tenants. The presumption is that property placed in joint tenancy showing husband and wife as joint tenants is presumed to be a gift to the marital estate, even if the land are purchased with the separate funds of one spouse. The lender on each of the two loans used to purchase the two properties provided affidavits that their verbal instructions and notes showed that the deeds were to have the husband as the sole grantee. An officer of one of the lenders testified that the placement of the wife's name on the deed was an error, contrary to the husband's verbal instructions.

TRIAL COURT RULING: Trial court ruled for the wife, finding that the placement of both the wife's and the husband's names on the deeds as joint tenants created a rebuttable presumption that the conveyance was a gift to the marital estate. The trial court determined that the presumption was not rebutted. The husband appealed.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: The court of civil appeals affirmed.

SUPREME COURT RULING: The supreme court reversed the trial court and the court of civil appeals, and held that the rebuttable presumption that the deed was a gift to the marital estate was overcome by clear and convincing evidence supported by not only the testimony of the husband, but by testimony of the lenders' staff that the instructions to the closer and lender from the husband were to place the title in his sole name.

27. CORNETT v. CARR (2013 OK 30)

TOPIC: SERVICE OF SUMMONS DEADLINE

HOLDING: RULE 9(A) OF THE RULES FOR DISTRICT COURTS' (MUST ISSUE SUMMONS IN 90 DAYS) IS STRICKEN AS BEING IN CONFLICT WITH 12 O.S.§2004(1) (MUST SERVE SUMMONS IN 180 DAYS)

FACTS: Husband sued to challenge a fraudulent sale of the divorced parties' property due to a side agreement to pay the wife additional funds ($8,000) outside closing. The divorce court ordered the wife to sell the property for the highest possible price and to split the proceeds. The case was initially dismissed without prejudice, and the husband refiled the lawsuit. The husband's lawyer failed to reissue summons within the 90 days required by Rule 9(a)

TRIAL COURT RULING: The trial court, on its own motion, dismissed the case a second time, again without prejudice to refiling.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS RULING: Court of Civil Appeals affirmed. Supreme Court granted Cert.

SUPREME COURT RULING: Supreme court vacated Court of Civil Appeals decision, and reversed Trial Court, and remanded to the Trial Court. Rule 9(a) requires that the Summons be issued within 90 days of the case being commenced, or the trial court may dismiss it without notice to the plaintiff. 12 O.S.§2004(1) provides that if Service is not made within 180 days of the commencement of the case, the trial court may dismiss the case without prejudice. The Supreme noted that the Rule 9(a) was adopted 20 years before the Pleading Code was adopted, including 12 O.S. §2004(1). It also noted that the public policy being implemented by Rule 9(a) was superseded by the adoption of 12 O.S. §2004(1). Therefore, after considering similar federal rules and related federal cases on service, the Supreme Court ruled "To the extent the two conflict, the statute must prevail." (¶6) It further concluded: "Today's decision renders Rule 9 unnecessary, and it is hereby stricken from the Rules for the District Courts of Oklahoma."

There was a dissent, joined in by 4 of the 5 justices. The dissent argued that the Rule 9 pertained to the issuance of Summons and not the Service of Summons. The dissent further argued that the purpose of Rule 9 was to allow the trial court to control its docket by forcing plaintiffs to promptly issue Summons or face a dismissal. Therefore, they argued, the public policy, of allowing the trial to control its docket, was still useful in promoting a positive goal.

V. ATTORNEY GENERAL OPINIONS

(NONE)

VI. TITLE EXAMINATION STANDARDS CHANGES

A. EXAMINING ATTORNEY'S RESPONSIBILITIES

1. GENERAL RESPONSIBILITY

According to the Oklahoma Attorney General, only a licensed attorney can issue an “opinion on the marketability of title” regarding title to real estate. This issue arose during the process of interpreting the Oklahoma Statute requiring the examination of a duly-certified abstract of title before a title insurance policy can be issued. 36 O.S. § 5001 (C) provides:

Every policy of title insurance or certificate of title issued by any company authorized to do business in this state shall be countersigned by some person, partnership, corporation or agency actively engaged in the abstract of title business in Oklahoma as defined and provided in Title 1 or by an attorney licensed to practice in the State of Oklahoma duly appointed as agent of a title insurance company, provided that no policy of title insurance shall be issued in the State of Oklahoma except after examination of a duly-certified abstract of title prepared by a bonded and licensed abstractor as defined herein. (underlining added).

The Attorney General opined (1983 OK AG 281, ¶6-7) as follows:

Your second question raises the issue of whether the title examination for purposes of issuing a title policy must be done by a licensed attorney. A previous opinion of the Attorney General held:

"All such examinations of abstract . . . shall be conducted by a licensed attorney prior to issuance of the policy of title insurance." A.G. Opin. No. 78-151 (June 6, 1978).

This opinion was based on the assertion that a title insurance policy "expresses an opinion as to the marketability of title." A.G. Opin. No. 78-151, supra. In reality, title insurance simply insures the policyholder against defects in the title. It does not express an opinion that the title is marketable. Land Title Company of Alabama v. State ex rel. Porter, 299 So.2d 289,295 (Ala.1974). While the rationale of the previous opinion is incorrect, we adhere to the conclusion expressed in that opinion that the examination of the abstract pursuant to 36 O.S. 5001(C) (1981) must be done by a licensed attorney. We reach this conclusion because the examination required by statute would only be useful if the examiner expressed an opinion on the marketability of the title. This constitutes the practice of law by the examiner. Land Title Company of Alabama v. State ex rel . Porter, supra at 295; Kentucky State Bar Association v.

First Federal Savings & Loan, 342 S.W.2d 397 (Ky.App. 1961). The theory that the corporation is actually examining the title for itself through an agent or employee and thus not engaged in the practice of law is invalid since laypersons or nonprofessionals cannot perform legal services for their employers. Kentucky State Bar Association v. Tussey, 476 S.W.2d 177 (Ky.App. 1972). There is no prohibition, however, against licensed staff attorneys furnishing title opinions for the company as long as these opinions are not sold or given to third parties. The Florida Bar v. McPhee, 195 So.2d 552 (Fla. 1967); Steer v. Land Title Guarantee & Trust Co., 113 N.E.2d 763 (Ohio Com.Pl. 1953). (underlining added)

As noted above, under the discussion of new Statutes, 36 O.S. § 5001 was amended, effective July 2007, to specifically require the examination described in that Section to be conducted by a licensed Oklahoma attorney, thereby prohibiting laymen and non-Oklahoma licensed attorneys from undertaking title exams for title insurance purposes.

2. LIABILITY OF TITLE EXAMINERS TO NON-CLIENTS

While there is no foolproof way to avoid liability to non-clients, it is usually a good practice to have both the inside address of the title opinion (i.e., the addressee) and limiting language, elsewhere in the opinion, expressly designate the sole person or company expected to rely on the opinion.

However, even where the opinion is addressed to a specific person or entity, it is possible that due to the particular circumstances surrounding the transaction, the attorney who is representing one party, such as the lender -- and rendering an opinion directed solely to that lender -- might be held to be liable to the opposing party, such as the borrower, as well.

As noted in an Oklahoma case considered by the 10th Circuit U.S. Court of Appeals, Vanguard Production, Inc. v. Martin, 894 F.2d 375 (10th Cir. 1990):

The Oklahoma Supreme Court replied that the pledgee's complaints stated a cause of action under Oklahoma law. Privity of contract does not apply to tort actions under Oklahoma law. See Keel v. Titan Constr. Corp., 639 P.2d 1228, 1232 (Okla. 1981). The Bradford court stated that to determine an attorney's negligence the jury must determine whether the attorney's conduct was "the conduct of an ordinarily prudent man based upon the dangers he should reasonably foresee TO THE PLAINTIFF OR ONE IN HIS POSITION in view of all the circumstances of the case such as to bring the plaintiff within the orbit of defendant's liability." Id. at 191 (emphasis in original).

In our view a contract for legal services is a contract for services giving rise to the duty of workmanlike performance. The record in this case reveals extensive communications between the attorneys [for the lender], Martin and Morgan, and the purchaser, Vanguard [the borrower], concerning the [lender's] title opinion. The record also shows that all parties, including Martin, Morgan, [the borrower] Vanguard, and [the lender] Glenfed, were concerned about the Texas Rose Petroleum suit. Thus, we find that an ordinarily prudent attorney in the position of the defendants would reasonably have apprehended that [the borrower] Vanguard was among the class of nonclients which, as a natural and probable consequence of the attorneys' actions in preparing the title opinion for Glenfed, could be injured. Thus, we hold that the defendants owed a duty of ordinary care, Bradford, 653 P.2d at 190, and workmanlike performance, Keel, 639 P.2d at 1231, to Vanguard in the performance of their contract for legal services with Glenfed. We stress that our holding only addresses the question of the duty of the defendants owed to Vanguard and not the question of whether Martin's, Morgan's and Ames, Ashabrunner's acts were the proximate cause of Vanguard's injuries. See Bradford, 653 P.2d at 190-91; Keel, 639 P.2d at 1232. (underlining added)

An interesting Oklahoma Court of Appeals case was decided in 1991, American Title Ins. v. M-H Enterprises, 815 P.2d 1219 (Okla. App. 1991). Therein it was held that a buyer of real property can sue (i.e., via counter claim) the title insurer for negligence in the preparation of a title policy, even if the title insurance policy was issued only in favor of the buyer's lender. This rule was applied where: (1) no abstract was prepared, (2) an attorney's title examination was not undertaken, and (3) the insurer/abstractor missed a recorded first mortgage. The facts of the case showed that, after the buyer/borrower lost the house through a foreclosure of the missed first mortgage, the insurer paid the insured second mortgage holder to settle under the terms of the title insurance policy and had such lender assign the worthless second note and mortgage to the insurer. The insurer then sued the buyer/borrower under the warranty of title in the second mortgage. The appellate court held that while the buyer/borrower was not a named insured, the insurer's own negligence (i.e., no abstract and no examination) caused the loss, and that the insurer did not buy the note and mortgage as a holder in due course, because (1) no value was paid for the acquisition of the note and mortgage (i.e., the payment was to settle its obligations under the policy) and (2) the note and mortgage were already in default when the insurer took an assignment of them.

The message in these two cases appears to be that a party that conducts either the examination or insures the title, can be held liable for an error in such effort to a third party. This is true even where the title examiner and title insurer had not expressly entered into any contractual relationship with such third party. Based upon these two cases, it appears that this liability might arise even where the attorney or insurer specifically directed his opinion or policy to only one of the multiple participants in the transaction.

3. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS ON TITLE OPINIONS

In terms of the nature of (i.e., tort vs. contract), and the statute of limitations on, attorneys' errors in examination of title, it should be noted that in 1985 the Oklahoma Supreme Court held:

In Oklahoma, an action for malpractice, whether medical or legal, though based on a contract of employment, is an action in tort and is governed by the two-year statute of limitations at 12 O.S.A. 1981, § 95 Third. (Seanor v. Browne, 154 Okl. 222, 7 P.2d 627 (1932)). This limitation period begins to run from the date the negligent act occurred or from the date the plaintiff should have known of the act complained of. (McCarroll v. Doctors General Hospital, 664 P.2d 382 (Okl. 1983)). The period may be tolled, however, by concealment by the attorney of the negligent acts which injured the client. This Court has previously held, in Kansas City Life Insurance Co. v. Nipper, 174 Okl. 634, 51 P.2d 741 (1935) that:

One relying on fraudulent concealment to toll the statute of limitation must not only show that he did not know facts constituting a cause of action, but that he exercised reasonable diligence to ascertain such facts.

(underlining added)

(Funnell v. Jones, 737 P.2d 105 (Okla. 1985))

However, in 1993 the Oklahoma Supreme Court "clarified" their holding in Funnell by declaring:

Appellees argue the instant case should be controlled by Funnell v. Jones, 737 P.2d 105 (Okla. 1985), cert. denied, 484 U.S. 853, 108 S.Ct. 158, 98 L.Ed.2d 113 (1987), a case where we applied the two year tort limitation period to a legal malpractice case. Appellees' reliance on Funnell is misplaced. The opinion in Funnell gives no indication a separate contract theory was alleged there or that the plaintiffs there attempted to rely on the three year limitation period for oral contracts. Thus, our statement in Funnell to the effect an action for malpractice, whether legal or medical, though based on a contract of employment, is an action in tort, must be taken in the context it was made, to wit: determining whether the two year limitation for torts was tolled based on allegations of fraudulent concealment on the part of defendant attorneys and that no acts alleged against defendants occurred within the two years immediately preceding filing of the lawsuit. Id. at 107-108. We did not decide in Funnell a proceeding against a lawyer or law firm is limited only to a proceeding based in tort no matter what the allegations of a petition brought against the lawyer or law firm. We have never so held and, in fact, to so rule would be tantamount to treating lawyers differently than we have treated other professions, something we refuse to do.

We have held a party may bring a claim based in both tort and contract against a professional and that such action may arise from the same set of facts. Flint Ridge Development Company, Inc. v. Benham-Blair and Affiliates, Inc., 775 P.2d 797, 799-801 (Okla. 1989) (architectural, engineering and construction supervision services). In essence, the holding of Flint Ridge is if the alleged contract of employment merely incorporates by reference or by implication a general standard of skill or care which a defendant would be bound independent of the contract a tort case is presented governed by the tort limitation period. Id. at 799-801. However, where the parties have spelled out the performance promised by defendant and defendant commits to the performance without reference to and irrespective of any general standard, a contract theory would be viable, regardless of any negligence on the part of a professional defendant. Id. As pertinent here, the specific promise alleged or reasonably inferred from the petition and documents attached thereto was to search the records of the County Clerk for an approximate nine (9) year period and report those records on file affecting the title for loan purposes. Simply, if this was the promised obligation a contractual theory of liability is appropriate which is governed by the three year limitation period applicable to oral contracts. (underlining added)

B. NEED FOR STANDARDS

1. BACKGROUND AND AUTHORITY OF STANDARDS

The first set of Statewide Standards was adopted in 1938 by the Connecticut Bar Association. On November 16, 1946 the General Assembly and House of Delegates of the Oklahoma Bar Association ("OBA") approved 21 Title Examination Standards ("Standards") for the first time in state history. 17 O.B.J. 1751. Of these 21, there were 10 without any specific citation of authority expressly listed. There are currently over 100 Standards in Oklahoma, and about 13 of these have no specific citation of authority (i.e., no citation of supporting Oklahoma statutes or case law).

In Oklahoma, new and revised Standards are developed and considered each year at 9 monthly Title Examination Standards Committee ("Standards Committee") meetings held from January to September. These proposals are then presented annually by the Standards Committee to the OBA Real Property Law Section ("Section") at the Section's annual meeting, usually held in November of each year. Immediately thereafter, the Section forwards to the OBA House of Delegates ("House"), for the House's consideration and approval, on the day following the Section meeting, any new or revised Standards which were approved at the Section's meeting.

All Oklahoma Supreme Court opinions are binding and must be followed by all trial court judges, meaning that such decisions are “precedential”. However, an opinion of one of the multiple intermediate 3-judge panels of Courts of Civil Appeals is only “persuasive” on future trial judge’s decisions, and not binding.

Oklahoma’s set of Standards have received acceptance from the Oklahoma Supreme Court which has held:

While [the Oklahoma] Title Examination Standards are not binding upon this Court, by reason of the research and careful study prior to their adoption and by reason of their general acceptance among members of the bar of this state since their adoption, we deem such Title Examination Standards and the annotations cited in support thereof to be persuasive. (underlining added)

Knowles v. Freeman, 649 P.2d 532, 535 (Okla. 1982).

The Standards become binding between the parties:

(1) IF the parties' contract incorporates the Standards as the measure of the required quality of title, for example:

(a) Standard 2.2 REFERENCE TO TITLE STANDARDS provides: "It is often practicable and highly desirable that, in substance, the following language be included in contracts for a sale of real estate: 'It is mutually understood and agreed that no matter shall be construed as an encumbrance or defect in title so long as the same is not so construed under the real estate title examination standards of the Oklahoma Bar Association where applicable;" (emphasis added)

and

(b) the Oklahoma City Metropolitan Board of Realtors standard contract provides: "7. TITLE EVIDENCE: Seller shall furnish Buyer title evidence covering the Property, which shows marketable title vested in Seller according to the title standards adopted by the Oklahoma Bar Association. . .", (emphasis added) or

(2) IF proceeds from the sale of oil or gas production are being held up due to an allegedly unmarketable title [52 O.S. 570.10.D.2a; also see: Hull, et al. v. Sun Refining, 789 P.2d 1272 (Okla. 1990) ("Marketable title is determined under §540 [now §570.10] pursuant to the Oklahoma Bar Association's title examination standards.")].

In these above instances, the parties might be subject to suits to specifically enforce or to rescind their contracts, to seek damages, or to pay increased interest on the withheld proceeds (i.e., 6% vs. 12%), with the Court's decision being based on the "marketability" of title as measured, where applicable, by the Standards.

However, it should be noted that "It is, therefore, the opinion of the Attorney General that where there is a conflict between a title examination standard promulgated by the Oklahoma Bar Association and the Oklahoma Statutes, the statutory provisions set out by the Legislature shall prevail." Okl. A.G. Opin. No. 79-230.

2. IMPETUS FOR STANDARDS: PROBLEMS WITH SEEKING PERFECT TITLE

The title examiner is required, as the first step in the examination process, to determine what quality of title is being required by his client/buyer or client/lender before undertaking the examination.

According to Am Jur 2d:

An agreement to sell and convey land is in legal effect an agreement to sell a title to the land, and in the absence of any provision in the contract indicating the character of the title provided for, the law implies an undertaking of the part of the vendor to make and convey a good or marketable title to the purchaser. A contract to sell and convey real estate ordinarily requires a conveyance of the fee simple free and clear of all liens and encumbrances. There is authority that the right to the vendee under an executory contract to a good title is a right given by law rather than one growing out of the agreement of the parties, and that he may insist on having a good title, not because it is stipulated for by the agreement, but on his general right to require it. In this respect, the terms "good title," "marketable title," and "perfect title" are regarded as synonymous and indicative of the same character of title. To constitute such a title, its validity must be clear. There can be no reasonable doubt as to any fact or point of law upon which its validity depends. As is sometimes said, a marketable title must be one which can be sold to a reasonable purchaser or mortgaged to a person of reasonable prudence. (underlining added)

(77 Am Jur 2d §115 Title of Vendor: Generally; Obligation to furnish good or marketable title)

While, in the absence of any provisions in a contract for the sale of land indicating the character of the title to be conveyed, the law implies an obligation or undertaking on the part of the vendor to convey or tender a good and marketable title, if the contract expressly stipulates as to the character of the title to be furnished by the vendor, the courts give effect thereto and require that the title offered conform to that stipulation, it is immaterial that it may in fact be a good or marketable title. A contract to convey a specific title is not fulfilled by conveying another and different title. On the other hand, when the title which the vendor offers or tenders conforms to the character of title stipulated in the contract of sale, the vendee is bound to accept it although the title may not be good or marketable within the meaning of the obligation or undertaking to furnish such a title which the law would have implied in the absence of any stipulation. Refusal to accept title tendered in accordance with the terms of sale constitutes a breach by the purchaser of land of his contract to purchase. If a contract for the purchase of real estate calls for nothing more than marketable title, the courts cannot substitute a different contract therefor. (underlining added)

(77 Am Jur 2d §123 Special Provisions as to character of title: Generally.)

The terminology which is used to define the quality of title to real property has apparently changed over time. Patton notes:

In the early law courts, titles as between vendor and purchaser were either good or bad; there was no middle ground. No matter how subject to doubt a purchaser might prove the title to be, he was under obligation to take it, unless he could prove that it was absolutely bad. But the courts of equity coined the expression "marketable title," to designate a title not necessarily perfect, or even good, in the law sense, but so free from all fair and reasonable doubts that they would compel a purchaser to accept it in a suit for specific performance. Conversely, an unmarketable title might be either one that was bad, or one with such a material defect as would cause a reasonable doubt in the mind of a reasonable, prudent, and intelligent person, and cause him to refuse to take the property at its full or fair value. Therefore the term "unmarketable title" includes both "bad titles" and "doubtful titles." Though originally there might have been a difference between a "good title" and a "marketable title," now the terms are used interchangeably. Other equivalent terms appear in the notes. A perfect record title may not be marketable, because of apparent defects, which cause reasonable doubts concerning its validity, and a good or marketable title may be far from perfect, because of hidden defects. In fact, under either the English system of unrecorded conveyances, or under the system afforded by our recording acts, "it is impossible in the nature of things that there should be a mathematical certainty of a good title." While examiners should be cautious in advising clients as to the acceptance of a title, neither should they frighten them by advertising these relatively infrequent dangers; and they must remember that a purchaser cannot legally demand a title which is absolutely free from all suspicion or possible defect. He may require only such a title as prudent men, well advised as to the facts and their legal bearings, would be willing to accept. Many courts further hold that a doubt sufficient to impair the character of marketableness must be such as will affect the selling value of the property or interfere with the making of a sale.

If unmarketable, the doubt which makes it so may be based upon an uncertainty either as to a fact or as to the law. If objection is made because of doubt upon a question of law, this does not make the title unmarketable unless the question is fairly debatable -- one upon which the judicial mind would hesitate before deciding it. Likewise as to a question of fact, there must be a real uncertainty or a difficulty of ascertainment if the matter is to affect marketability. A fact which is readily ascertainable and which may be readily and easily shown at any time does not make title unmarketable. For instance, where a railway company reserved a right of way for its road as now located and constructed or hereafter to be constructed, the easement depended on the fact of the then location of the line; and as the evidence showed that no line had then been located, and as the matter could be easily and readily proved at any time, the clause did not make plaintiff's title unmarketable. But where there are known facts which cast doubt upon a title so that the person holding it may be exposed to good-faith litigation, it is not marketable.

Recorded muniments form so generally the proofs of title in this country, that the courts of several jurisdictions hold not only that a good or marketable title must have the attributes of that term as used by the equity courts, but also that it must be fairly deducible of record. This phase of the matter will be considered further in the ensuing section.

Determination of questions as to the marketability of titles is peculiarly within the province of counsel for buyer or mortgagee. Counsel for the owner will not only endeavor to remedy the condition of the title as to any requirements which he concedes to be proper, but usually finds it easier to do so than to contest the matter, even as to matters not so conceded. In the main it is only when compliance is impossible or when time for compliance is lacking or has passed that the question reaches the courts. Even then a decision is not always possible. This is because courts usually will not undertake to determine doubtful questions involving the rights of others who are not parties to the action. (underlining)

(§46. Classification of Vendor Titles)

Title insurance, like most types of insurance, insures against loss due to certain conditions. One of these conditions which triggers liability is “unmarketability of title”. Such term is defined in such policy as: “an alleged or apparent matter affecting the title to the land, not excluded or excepted from coverage, which could entitle a purchaser of the estate or interest described in Schedule A to be released from the obligation to purchase by virtue of a contractual condition requiring the delivery of marketable title.” (ALTA Owner’s Policy (10-21-87)) Such definition is sufficiently circular to require the interpretation of the applicable State’s law in each instance to determine whether specific performance would be enforced in such jurisdiction.

In summary, it appears that "marketable title" means (1) the public record affirmatively shows a solid chain of title (i.e., continuous and uninterrupted) and (2) the public record does not show any claims in the form of outstanding unreleased liens or encumbrances. This "good record title" can be conveyed and backed up by the delivery of a deed to the vendee containing sufficient warranties to ensure that the vendor must make the title "good in fact", if non-record defects or non-record liens and encumbrances surface later.

However, to the extent that a contract provision -- providing that the vendor must convey “marketable title” -- is interpreted to require title to be free from "all reasonable doubt", it opens the door to differences of opinion between persons of “reasonable prudence”. As noted in Bayse:

Time cures certain errors in conveyancing by means of statutes of limitations. The healing effect of curative legislation removes other defects of conveyancing. But operation of these kinds of legislation neither defines nor declares what constitutes a marketable title. The usual definition of a marketable title is one which is free from all reasonable doubt. This negative approach is not now satisfactory, for it is a rare title concerning which an examiner cannot entertain some doubt with respect to some transaction in its history. (underlining added) (Paul E. Bayse, Clearing Land Titles (herein "Bayse"): §8. Legislation)

It is this focus on looking for a defect -- any defect -- whether substantive or merely a technical one, that can cause the system to bog down. If there is more than a single title examiner within a community, there is also the possibility of there being a wide range of examination attitudes resulting in differing conclusions as to the adequacy of the title.

In "Increasing Land Marketability Through Uniform Title Standards", 39 Va.L.Rev. 1 (1953), John C. Payne, (herein "Increasing Marketability") the problems caused by each examiner exercising unbridled discretion are noted:

When the examiner, upon the basis of these decisions, has found that the present vendor can convey a title which is good in fact, he must then ask whether the title has the additional characteristic of marketability. What constitutes a marketable title? Here again legal definitions are subordinate to functional meaning. What the purchaser of land wants is a title which not only can be defended but which can be presented to another examiner with the certainty that it will be unobjectionable. It is small comfort to the owner that he has not been disseized if he is unable to sell or mortgage. If one and the same examiner passed all titles in a given locality, the title which the examiner considered good as a practical matter would, of course, also be merchantable. But such is not the case, and the present examiner must anticipate that his client will in the future attempt to either sell or mortgage and that the same title will come under the scrutiny of some other examiner. In each of the decisions which an examiner has made in determining the validity of a title he has had to exercise sound legal and practical judgment. Will a second examiner, vested with the same wide discretion, reach the same conclusion? If his conclusion is different and he rejects the title, the professional reputation of the first examiner will be impaired and his client may suffer substantial financial loss. Faced with this uncertainty, many examiners have adopted a solution which emphasizes individual security rather than the general facility of land transfers. This is the practice known as "construing against title," or more picturesquely, as "flyspecking." These terms indicate that the examiner indulges in a minimum of presumptions of law and fact, demands full search of title in every instance, and places no reliance upon the statute of limitations. As a consequence he considers all errors of record as substantial. The result of even a single examiner in a community adopting this practice is to set up titles which are practically good in fact. Examiner A rejects a title on technical grounds. Thereafter, Examiner B, to whom the same problem is presented, feels compelled to reject any title presented to him which exhibits a similar defect. Examiner A is thereupon confirmed in the wisdom of his initial decision, and resolves to be even more strict in the future. It is sometimes said that the practice of construing against title reduces an entire bar to the standards of its most timorous member. This is an understatement, for the net effect is an extremity obtained only by mutual goading.

The consequences of construing against title are iniquitous, and the practice itself is ridiculous in that it is predicated upon a theoretical perfection unobtainable under our present system of record land titles. Many titles which are practically unassailable become unmarketable or the owners are put to expense and delay in rectifying formal defects. Examiners are subjected to much extra labor without commensurate compensation, and the transfer of land is retarded. As long as we tolerate periodic re-examination of the same series of non-conclusive records by different examiners, each vested with very wide discretion, there is no remedy for these difficulties. However, some of the most oppressive results may be avoided by the simple device of agreements made by examiners in advance as to the general standards which they will apply to all titles which they examine. Such agreements may extend to: (1) the duration of search; (2) the effect of lapse of time upon defects of record; (3) the presumptions of fact which will ordinarily be indulged in by the examiner; (4) the law applicable to particular situations; and (5) relations between examiners and between examiners and the public. Where agreements are made by title examiners within a particular local area having a single set of land records, such agreements may extend even further and may embrace the total effect of particular specific records. For example, it may be agreed that certain base titles are good and will not thereafter be examined or that specific legal proceedings, normally notorious foreclosures and receivership actions, will be conclusively deemed effective. Although such agreements may not be legally binding upon the courts, they may go far toward dispelling the fear that if one examiner waives an apparent defect of title it may be deemed a cloud upon the title by a subsequent examiner. The result is an increase in the marketability of land and a reduction of the labor imposed upon the proponent of the title. The obvious utility of such an arrangement has led to the adoption of uniform standards for the examination of titles by an increasing number of bar associations. (underlying added)

The problems resulting from this quest for perfect title can impact the examiner and his clients in several ways:

1. The legal fees charged to the public are higher because each examination for a parcel must always go back all the way to sovereignty (or, in some states, back to the root of title);
2. The costs to cure minor defects are often relatively large compared to the risk being extinguished;
3. The unexpected costs to remedy problems already existing when the vendor came into title, which were waived by the vendor's attorney, are certainly not welcomed by the public; and
4. The prior examiner looks inept and/or the subsequent examiner looks unreasonable, when a preexisting defect is waived by one attorney and "caught" by the next.

(John C. Payne, "The Why, What and How of Uniform Title Standards", 7 Ala.L.Rev. 25 (1954) (herein "The Why of Standards"))).

In addition, friction and lowering of professional cooperation increase between the title examining members of the bar as they take shots at each other's work. This process of adopting an increasingly conservative and cautious approach to examination of titles creates a downward spiral. As noted in Bayse:

Examiners themselves are human and will react in different ways to the same factual situation. Some are more conservative than others. Even though one examiner feels that a given irregularity will not affect the marketability of a title as a practical matter, he is hesitant to express his opinion of marketability when he knows that another examiner in the same community may have occasion to pass upon the title at a later time and would undoubtedly be more conservative and hold it to be unmarketable. Under these circumstances he is inclined to be more conservative himself and declare the title to be unmarketable. People do not like to be required to incur expense and effort to correct defects which do not in a practical sense jeopardize a title when they have already been advised that their title is marketable. The public becomes impatient with a system that permits such conservative attitudes.

If the same examiner passed judgment upon all title transactions, this situation would remain dormant. Unfortunately such is not the case. Or if all examiners would hold the same opinion as to specific irregularities in titles, this complication would not arise. But this also is not the case. The result in many communities has been greatly depressive, sometimes tragic. (underlining added)

(Bayse: §7. Real Estate Standards)

The State of Oklahoma used to have one of the most strict standards for "marketable title" which was caused by the interpretation of the language of several early Oklahoma Supreme Court cases. The current title standard in Oklahoma has been changed, as of November 10, 1995, to be less strict. It now provides:

1.1 MARKETABLE TITLE DEFINED

"A marketable title is one free from apparent defects, grave doubts and litigious uncertainty, and consists of both legal and equitable title fairly deducible of record."

In response to this obvious need to avoid procedures that alienated the public and caused distance to grow between examiners, a movement began and mushroomed in a couple of decades throughout the country to adopt uniform title examination standards. Such standards were adopted first in local communities by the practicing bar and then on a statewide basis. Although there is some competition among local bars for the place of honor, it appears that the local bar of Livingston County, Illinois adopted a set of 14 standards on April 7, 1923. Thereafter, in 1933 or 1934, the Gage County Nebraska Bar Association formulated 32 title standards. The Connecticut Bar, in 1938, became the first state to have statewide standards by adopting a set of 50. ("Increasing Marketability")

Over the years, since 1938, a total of 31 States have adopted statewide sets of Standards. Of these, there are currently 19 States which have sets of Standards which have been updated in the last 5 years. In the recent past, 4 States have adopted their first sets of Standards including: Vermont (1995), Arkansas (1995), Texas (1997) and Louisiana (2001). See the attached National Title Examination Standards Resource Center Report, and see my web site at www.eppersonlaw.com for more details on the status of Standards in other States.

C. NEWEST CHANGES TO TITLE STANDARDS

The revised Standards and new Standards, discussed below, were considered and approved by the Standards Committee during the most recent January-September period. The proposed changes and additions were then published in the Oklahoma Bar Journal in October, and were then considered and approved by the Section at its annual meeting in November. They were thereafter considered and approved by the OBA House of Delegates in November. These changes and additions became effective immediately upon adoption by the House of Delegates. A notice of the House's approval of the proposed new and revised Standards was thereafter published in the Oklahoma Bar Journal. The new "TES Handbook", containing the updated versions of these Standards, is printed and mailed to all Section members by January.

The following sections display and discuss the Proposals which were submitted to the Section and the House of Delegates for their approval. The text for the discussion is taken from the Annual Report published in the Oklahoma Bar Journal in October. This text was prepared by the Title Examination Standards Handbook Editor for the OBA Real Property Law Section, Jack Wimbish, a Committee member from Tulsa. Note that where an existing standard is being revised, a "legislative" format is used below, meaning additions are underlined, and deletions are shown by [brackets].

A brief explanatory note precedes each Proposed Standard, indicating the nature and reason for the change proposed.

2013 REPORT OF THE TITLE EXAMINATION STANDARDS COMMITTEE OF THE REAL PROPERTY LAW SECTION

Proposed Amendments to Title Standards for 2013, to be presented for approval by the House of Delegates, Oklahoma Bar Association at the Annual Meeting, November 15, 2013. Additions are underlined, deletions are indicated by ~~strikeout~~.

The Title Examination Standards Sub-Committee of the Real Property Law Section proposes the following revisions and additions to the Title Standards for action by the Real Property Law Section at its annual meeting in Oklahoma City on Thursday, November 14, 2013.

Proposals approved by the Section will be presented to the House of Delegates at the OBA Annual Meeting on Friday, November 15, 2013. Proposals adopted by the House of Delegates become effective immediately.

An explanatory note precedes each proposed Title Standard, indicating the nature and reason for the change proposed.

Proposal No. 1

The Committee recommends an amendment to Standard No. 3.2 to establish guidelines for the use of Affidavits to establish marketable title to severed mineral interests.

3.2 AFFIDAVITS AND RECITALS

A. Recorded affidavits and recitals should cover the matters set forth in 16 O.S. §§ 82 and 83. They cannot substitute for a conveyance or probate of a will.

B. Affidavits and recitals should state facts rather than conclusions and should reveal the basis of the maker's knowledge. The value of an affidavit or recital is not reduced if the maker is interested in the title.

C. Oklahoma statutes have authorized the use of affidavits to affect title to real property for several purposes. The specific statute should be consulted and the requirements of the statute should be followed carefully.

D. Special attention should be given to the provisions of 16 O.S. § 67 – Acquiring Severed Mineral Interests from Decedent – Establishing Marketable Title:

1. In part, 16 O.S. § 67 provides that a person who claims a severed mineral interest, through an affidavit of death and heirship recorded pursuant to 16 O.S. §§ 82 and 83, shall acquire a marketable title ten years after the recording of the affidavit by following the five specific steps set forth in part C of Section

67. The act applies only to severed minerals, not leasehold interests. Section 82 provides that such an affidavit creates a rebuttable presumption that the facts stated in the recorded affidavit are true as they relate to the severed minerals.²

2. Although not specifically required by 16 O.S. § 67, it is recommended that the affidavit contain sufficient factual information to make a proper determination of heirship. Such information includes the date of death of the decedent, a copy of the death certificate, marital history of the decedent, names and dates of death of all spouses, a listing of all children of the decedent including any adopted children, identity of the other parent of all children of the decedent, the date of death of any deceased children and the identity of the deceased child's spouse and issue, if any. During the ten year period of 16 O.S. § 67, if an affidavit fails to include factual information necessary to make a proper determination of heirship, the examiner should call for a new affidavit that contains the additional facts necessary for a proper determination of heirship. If a new or corrected affidavit is filed, the statutory ten-year period would run from the date of recordation of the new or corrected affidavit

3. Title 16 O.S. § 67 is unclear when an unprobated will is attached, whether title passes to the intestate heirs or to the devisees under the will. Oklahoma cases have held that until a will is admitted to probate, it is wholly ineffectual to pass title to real property, including any mineral or leasehold interest and a devisee has no rights to enforce under the will. A foreign will that has not been probated in Oklahoma is ineffective to establish any interest or title in the persons claiming thereunder. If the decedent died with a will, strong consideration should be given to a probate of the estate.

4. If the decedent died intestate, strong consideration should be given to an administration of the estate or a judicial determination of death and heirship during the ten year period before the title becomes marketable by a properly prepared 16 O.S. §67 affidavit.

Comment 1: Affidavits affecting real property include: Affidavits to Terminate Joint Tenancy or Life Estates (58 O.S. § 912); Multi Subject Information Affidavit (16 O.S. §§ 82-83); Memorandum of Trust (60 O.S. § 175.6a).

Affidavits to Terminate Joint Tenancy or Life Estates under 58 O.S. § 912 may be recorded with only a jurat or only an acknowledgment, or both. Since this provision is specific to §912, prudence dictates that an affidavit which is not prepared under 912 contain both a jurat and acknowledgment. See 16 O.S. § 26.

Comment 2: Before the affidavit or unprobated will has been of record for ten years, it is not uncommon for the title examiner to recommend to the party paying royalty owners to consider assuming the business risk of waiving the requirements of marketable title, which might include a probate administration, or judicial determination of death and heirship, and assume the business risk of relying upon the affidavit called for in Section 67.

Comment 3: Yeldell v. Moore, 1954 OK 260; 275 P.2d 281. Oklahoma cases discuss the “factum” of a will: whether the will is legally executed in statutory form; legal capacity of the testator; the absence of undue influence, fraud and duress, Ferguson v. Paterson, 191 F.2d 584 (10th Cir. 1951); Matter of the Estate of Snead, 1998 OK 8, 953 P.2d 1111; Footte v. Carter, 1960 OK 234, 357 P.2d 1000. In Oklahoma the district court determines the validity of a will, interprets the will and determines the heirs. A probate proceeding is necessary to determine if there are pretermitted heirs, allow for spousal elections, determine if there is any marital property, and confirm the absence of liens for taxes and debts.

Comment 4: Smith v. Reneau, 1941 OK 99; 2112 P.2d 160. The decree of the court administering the estate is conclusive as to the legatees, devisees and heirs of the decedent, Wells v. Helms, 105 F.2d 402 (10th Cir. 1939).

Comment 5: The use of (non-judicial) heirship affidavits under 16 O.S. § 67 may also be suspect in the context of restricted citizens (members) of the Five Civilized Tribes in light of the Act of June 14, 1918, 40 Stat. 606 (25 U.S.C. 375) and Section 3 of the Act of August 4, 1947, 61 Stat.731 which confers exclusive jurisdiction upon the courts of Oklahoma to judicially determine such heirship in accordance with the Oklahoma probate code.

Proposal No. 2

The committee recommends that Standard 6.7 be amended to point out the consequences of a conservator or guardian being appointed to the holder of a power of attorney of the ward for whom the conservator or guardianship was appointed.

6.7 VALIDITY OF INSTRUMENTS EXECUTED BY ATTORNEYS-IN-FACT

A. An instrument affecting title to real estate executed by an attorney-in-fact duly appointed and empowered, and not subject to the provisions of paragraphs B, C or D below, is acceptable to vest marketable title in the grantee, if:

1. the power of attorney, other than a durable power of attorney, was executed, acknowledged and recorded in the manner required by law; or
2. the power of attorney is a durable power of attorney recorded in the manner required by law and:
 - a. executed after November 1, 1988 under the Uniform Durable Power of Attorney Act (58 O.S. §§ 1071-1077); or
 - b. executed between June 16, 1965 and September 1, 1992, under the provisions of the Special Power of Attorney Act (58 O.S. §§ 1051-1062); or

c. executed after November 1, 1998, under the provisions of the Uniform Statutory Power of Attorney Act (15 O.S. §§ 1001-1020).

3. Notwithstanding the foregoing, an instrument executed by an attorney in fact that has been recorded for at least five (5) years is valid even though no power of attorney was recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the property is located.

B. An instrument that otherwise conforms with the provisions of paragraph A above fails to vest title in the grantee if a revocation of the power of attorney by either

1. the principal, or
2. a conservator, guardian or other fiduciary of the principal appointed by a court of the principal's domicile, has been recorded in the same office in which the instrument containing the power of attorney was recorded.

C. An instrument that otherwise conforms with the provisions of paragraph A above fails to vest title in the grantee if the power of attorney has otherwise terminated by law and such termination either appears in the abstract or is within the personal knowledge of the examiner.

Authority: 15 O.S. §§ 1001-1020; 16 O.S. §§ 3, 20, 21, 27a and 53; 58 O.S. §§ 1071 et seq.

D. An instrument that otherwise conforms with the provisions of paragraph A above fails to vest title in the grantee if the power of attorney has terminated by law by reason of the appointment of a conservator or guardian of the principal as set out below:

1. for a durable power of attorney which does not contain a nomination of the person to act as conservator or guardian, such power of attorney terminates by reason of the appointment, on or after November 1, 2010, of a conservator of the estate, or guardian of the estate, of the principal in such power of attorney and upon notice of such appointment as required by statute, or,
2. for a durable power of attorney containing a nomination of the person to act as conservator or guardian, such power of attorney terminates by reason of the appointment, on or after November 1, 2010, of a conservator of the estate, or guardian of the estate or guardian of the person, of the principal in accordance with such nomination contained in the power of attorney and upon notice of such appointment as required by statute.

Authority: 58 O.S. § 1074.

Comment 1: Notwithstanding the foregoing, an instrument executed by an attorney in fact that has been recorded for at least five (5) years is valid even though no power of attorney was recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the property is located, provided no conservator or guardian for the principal in the power of attorney has been appointed on or before the date of such instrument. See 16 O.S. 27a

Comment 2: The form of the notice of the appointment referenced above and to whom such notice must be given is not specified in the statutes.

Comment 3: The death, disability or incapacity of a principal who has previously executed a written power of attorney, whether durable or otherwise, does not revoke or terminate the agency as to the attorney-in-fact who, without actual knowledge of the death, disability or incapacity of the principal, acts in good faith under the power. Any action so taken, unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, binds the principal and successors in interest, 58 O.S. § 1075.

A power of attorney executed in another state shall be considered valid for purposes of the Uniform Durable Power of Attorney Act if the power of attorney and the execution of the power of attorney substantially comply with the requirements of the Uniform Durable Power of Attorney Act (58 O.S. §§ 1071-1077) or the Uniform Statutory Power of Attorney Act (15 O.S. §§ 1001-1020).

Proposal No. 3

The Committee recommends a change in Standard 7.2 to clarify that the validity of a purchase money mortgage is not affected by the failure of a non-titled spouse to execute the purchase money mortgage.

7.2 MARITAL INTERESTS AND MARKETABLE TITLE

Except as otherwise provided in Standard 7.1, no deed, mortgage (other than a purchase money mortgage) or other conveyance by an individual grantor shall be approved as sufficient to vest marketable title in the grantee unless:

A. The body of the instrument contains the grantor's recitation to the effect that the individual grantor is unmarried; or

B. The individual grantor's spouse, identified as such in the body of the instrument, subscribes the instrument as a grantor; or

C. The grantee is the spouse of the individual grantor and that fact is recited by the grantor in the body of the instrument.

Comment 1: There is no question that an instrument relating to the homestead is void unless husband and wife subscribe it. Grenard v. McMahan, 1968 OK 75, 441 P.2d 950, Atkinson v. Barr, 1967 OK 103, 428 P. 2d 316, but also see Hill v. Discover Bank, 2008 OK CIV APP 111, 213 P.3d 835. It is also settled that husband and wife must execute the same instrument, as separately executed instruments will be void. Thomas v. James, 1921 OK 4142, 202 P. 499 and Hawkins v. Corbit, 1921 OK 345, 202, P. 649. It is essential to make the distinction between a valid conveyance and a conveyance vesting marketable title when consulting this standard.

Comment 2: While 16 O.S. § 13 states that “The husband or wife may convey, mortgage or make any contract relating to any real estate, other than the homestead, belonging to him or her, as the case may be, without being joined by the other in such conveyance, mortgage or contract,” joinder by husband and wife must be required in all cases due to the impossibility of ascertaining from the record whether the property was or was not homestead or whether the transaction is one of those specifically permitted by statute. See 16 O.S. §§ 4 and 6 and Okla. Const. Art. XII, § 2. A well-settled point is that one may not rely upon recitations, either in the instrument or in a separate affidavit, to the effect that property was not the homestead. Such a recitation by the grantor may be strong evidence when the issue is litigated, but it cannot be relied upon for the purpose of establishing marketability. Hensley v. Fletcher, 172 Okla. 19, 44 P.2d 63 (1935).

Comment 3: If a individual grantor is unmarried and the grantor’s marital status is inadvertently omitted from an instrument, or if two grantors are married to each other and the grantors’ marital status is inadvertently omitted from an instrument, a title examiner may rely on an affidavit executed and recorded pursuant to 16 O.S. § 82 which recites that the individual grantor was unmarried or that the two grantors were married to each other at the date of such conveyance.

Comment 4: A non-owner spouse may join in a conveyance as part of a special phrase placed after the habendum clause, yet be omitted from the grantor line of a deed, and still be considered a grantor to satisfy paragraph B. of this title standard. Melton v. Sneed, 188 Okla. 388, 109 P.2d 509 (1940).

7.3 Marital Interests Purchase Money Mortgages.

The homestead interest of a spouse who is not in title to homestead property is inferior to the lien of a purchase money mortgage. Therefore, the validity of a purchase money mortgage is not affected by the failure of a non-title-holding spouse to execute a purchase money mortgage on homestead property.

Authority: Cimarron Federal Savings Association v. Jones, 1991 OK CIV APP 67, 832 P.2d 426, approved for publication and given precedential effect, Cimarron Federal Savings Association v. Jones, 1992 OK 55, 832 P.2d 420.

Proposal No. 4

The Committee recommends that Title Standard 8.1 B be amended to reflect that the applicable statutes do not require that the signer of the affidavit referred to therein be required to have personal knowledge of the facts and matters set forth in the affidavit.

A. The termination of the interest of a deceased joint tenant or life tenant may be established on a prima facie basis by one of the following methods:

1. By recording certified copies of letters testamentary or letters of administration for the estate of the deceased joint tenant or life tenant or

2. By recording an affidavit from a person other than those listed in 58 O.S. § 912C which

a. has a certified copy of the decedent's death certificate attached;

~~_____ b. reflects that the affiant has personal knowledge of the matters set forth therein;~~

~~_____ c. includes a legal description of the property;~~

~~_____ d. states that the person named in the death certificate is one and the same person as the deceased joint tenant or life tenant named in a previously recorded instrument which created or purported to create the joint tenancy or life tenancy in such property, and identifying such instrument by book and page where recorded.~~

Proposal No. 5

The Committee proposes to amend Standard No. 34.2 E to accurately reflect the current law as to judgments obtained in a bankruptcy proceeding.

A. Judgment Liens in Bankruptcy.

~~_____ 1. Judgment Liens Before November 1, 1997~~

~~_____ a1. Judgment liens perfected before November 1, 1997, do not attach to homestead property and do not constitute a lien against such property. 12 O.S. § 706; Gerlach Bank v. Allen, 51 Okla. 736, 152 P. 399 (1915) and Finerty v. First Nat. Bank, 92 Okl. 102, 218 P. 859 (1923).~~

2. Judgment liens perfected on or after November 1, 1997, attach to homestead property and constitute a lien against such property. 12 O.S. 706.

~~_____b3. When a lien does not attach to real property, there is no need for avoidance proceedings. David Dorsey Distrib., Inc. v. Sanders (In re Sanders), 39 F.3d 258, 262 (10th Cir. 1994).~~

~~_____2. Judgment Liens On or After November 1, 1997~~

~~_____a. Judgment liens perfected on or after November 1, 1997, attach to homestead property and constitute a lien against such property. 12 O.S. § 706.~~

~~_____b4. Any liens or charges that were properly perfected prior to the instigation of bankruptcy proceedings will survive those proceedings unless specifically avoided pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 522(f) and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4003(d). 11 U.S.C. §§ 522(c) and (f); Long v. Bullard, 117 U.S. 617, 6 S.Ct. 917, 29 L.Ed. 1004 (1886); Johnson v. Home State Bank, 111 S.Ct. 2150 (1991); Farrey v. Sanderfoot, 111 S.Ct. 1825 (1991); and Owen v. Owen, 111 S.Ct. 1833 (1991).~~

Comment: Except as provided in 11 U.S.C. 552(b) property acquired after commencement of the case is not subject to a pre-petition judgment lien.

~~€_____5. For the title to real property passing through bankruptcy proceedings to be free and clear of a pre-petition judgment lien, the abstract being examined should contain, or the examiner should review certified copies of, the motion requesting that the lien be avoided pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 522(f) and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4003(d) and the order granting said motion. Id. and Coats v. Ogg (In re: Ogg), ___ F.3d ___, BAP No. EO-98-028 (10th Cir. 1999).~~

Comment: BKR 4003(d) provides that a proceeding to avoid a lien under 11 U.S.C. 522(f) is by motion pursuant to Rule 9014 Fed. R. Bank. P., which provides at (b) that service shall be as in service of summons pursuant to Rule 704 Fed. R. Bank. P.

Rule 7004(h) Fed. R. Bank.P. provides for service on an Insured Depository Institution.

Proposal No. 6

The Committee recommends new Standard 35.4 to set out the effect of a Foreign State Court Order or Decree on real property located in Oklahoma.

35.4 FOREIGN STATE COURT PROCEEDINGS OR ACTIONS

A foreign state court order or decree or a person acting pursuant to the authority of a foreign state court order or decree cannot operate directly to establish title or convey Oklahoma lands. The party seeking to establish or convey title must initiate a proper Oklahoma proceeding or action.

Comment: Common situations which arise in the course of examination include:

A. The estate of a non-resident decedent which contains real property must be probated or administered,

1. by ancillary proceedings, pursuant to 58 O.S. § 51 et seq., 58 O. S. § 245 et seq., 58 O. S. § 677, Brooks v. Yarbrough, 37 F.2d 527 or

2. by proceeding to determine death and succession or heirship 84 O.S. § 251 et seq.

B. The estate of a non-resident ward which contains real property must be properly domesticated in Oklahoma and proper proceedings instituted thereon. 30 O.S. §3-317.

C. An award of Oklahoma real property in a foreign divorce or other civil action must be properly domesticated in Oklahoma and proper proceedings instituted thereon. 12 O.S. §719 et seq. Sharp v. Sharp, 1916 OK 736, 65 Okla. 76, 166 P. 175 and West v. West, 1954 OK 84, 268 P.2d 250. After establishing personal jurisdiction over a party, a foreign state court may compel that party to act with respect to Oklahoma lands by way of that court's contempt power.

We need to adopt a new Standard covering bankruptcy matters.

(Epperson?)	30.9 & 30.10	Jan Tabled to 2015	MRTA & Co-Tenancy Termination One of the comments to this standard refers to the possibility of there being two roots of title creating two marketable record titles, with each being subject to the other. The sample fact pattern is (1) decree of Blackacre to wife and two sons with decree filed 35 years ago, and (2) wife deeds Blackacre (without specifying a quantum of interest) to one of two sons, with deed filed 31 years ago. Since wife's deed is more than 30 years old, does the MRTA establish title in the grantee son, and extinguish the omitted son's claim? (See Bennett v. Whitehouse)

(Munson??)	30.1 et seq	Jan Tabled to 2015	MRTA/Severed Minerals Due to the holding in the Rocket case, can it be concluded that the MRTA does affect severed mineral chains of title? (see Epperson's published article on the issue at www.eppersonlaw.com)
------------	-------------	--------------------	--

(Epperson?)	NEW	Jan Tabled to 2015	JUDGMENTS/DECREES & CONSTRUCTIVE NOTICE Under the MRTA, the SLTA, and under the terms of the Uniform Abstractors Certificate, do documents that are not filed with the County Clerk (e.g., divorce and probate proceedings) constitute constructive notice and become part of the official chain of title. Also, if a judgment or decree – affecting title to real

			property -- is required by statute to be placed in the county clerk's land records in order to constitute constructive notice, but has not been filed there, does the inclusion of such document in an abstract give to the examiner and the client actual notice of the same liens and ownership changes? If so, as of what date? Can you rely upon a decree as part of a chain of title, if it was never recorded in the land records?

(Doyle??)	???	Jan Tabled Indefin itely	BANKRUPTCY The Bankruptcy section has had discussion about the degree of notice imputed to a creditor when property is occupied by a tenant. Is the adoption of a new standard or the amendment of an existing standard necessary?
------------------	------------	---	---

(Epperson?)	7.1 & 6.7	Jan Tabled Indefin itely	VALIDITY OF INSTRUMENTS EXECUTED BY ATTORNEYS-IN-FACT A request has been made to clarify this standard to make an affirmative declaration that the use of a power of attorney is permitted on marital homestead or potentially marital homestead property. Until 1993 there was an express prohibition on using a power of attorney on instruments affecting potential marital homestead property, and, while the prohibition was removed, the silence is not reassuring. (by Mitch Gregory)
